*Won by Michael McIntyre, playing GERMANY! (Four down and 44 to go....)

NOTE: We will be away on a series of business trips (and attending the BAYCON) from Aug. 23 thru Sept. 7. We have tried to arrange the deadlines so as to cause a minimum of disruption and delays. Note that most moves will fall due on Monday, Aug. 19. If at all possible, please try to get moves due the 19th in early, so we can get some of the work out of the way (the 13th or 14th would be perfect -- if not then, at least a couple of days before the 19th) -- the 19th is very close to the 23rd, and we'd hate to not get the 'zine out at all before we went away.... Also please note that the issue coming out on the 20th (or 21st) will carry no propaganda (except for the Anonymous games -- please keep it short here) because of the large number of games to be published therein. This will probably be true as well for the first issue after we return. ##### Any deadlines which fall while we are away (Regular games only) will be enforced -- someone else will publish the moves for these games while we are away -- he will come by the house after the deadline to pick up the moves, so continue sending them here.

The Players -- Complete roster appeared in both DPBA #'s 29 & 28, with changes in #30 and #31. Add to roster Von Metzke(PRC), Schelz(PXC,PME), Linden(FEC); delete Nemeth(PRC), Mazor(PXC), D.Miller(PME). Changes-of-address are as follows:

Boskey, Jim -- Cleveland-Marshall Law School, 1240 Ontario St., Cleveland, Ohio, 44113 (eff. Aug. 15).

Brannan, Dan -- %Dan Alderson, 6720 Day St., Tujunga, Cal., 91042.

Gemignani, Margaret -- At Ft. Lauderdale address now; she arrived early....

Harrison, Cole -- Homat Imperial, Apt. #42, 3-28, 4-chome, Rappougi, Minato-ku, Tokyo, Japan (leaves U.S. 25 Aug., arrives 1 Sept.; all mail via air-mail, at 25¢ per half-ounce (air-letter is cheaper -- 13¢); permanent change).

Hoheisel, R.Wayne -- 3417 Univ. Blvd., West, Kensington, Md., 20795 (949-9091).

Propaganda --

A Correspondent -- Gemignani, arise and take action.

Russia -- Goodbye George.

Antwerp -- German Government in exile: The Kaiser's answer to the perfidious Perry-Tsar is unprintable. Wilhelm raged thru his gathered court: "Can I allow this monstrous animal who crushed my people, raped my women, and trampled my fields to continue in his ghastly advance? Never!! My nation shall fight on to the end. We shall attack and attack again, never stopping until Berlin is entered again. And if we should fail, France can have my heritage, my title -- even England can rule in Berlin sooner than the lowly Slavs. Civilization must be protected from this horrible blight on central Europe. We shall never surrender to those perfidious dogs."

Deadline for SPRING, 1905 moves -- Noon, Mon., Aug. 19.

PUC (Regular Diplomacy Game #14) -- WAR SLOWS TO SNAILS PACE AS AUSTRIA-HUNGARY, RUSSIA FAIL TO BUILD!

Propaganda --

Berlin -- The German Government is pleased to announce that the scheduled "Operation Sea Lion will take place a full 40 years ahead of time, thanks to the recent breakthroughs in the field of amphibious warfare by German scientists!

Prague -- The Council of Vienna extends its deepest sympathy to the English Royal Family and all of England on the death of the beloved King Robert.

Rome -- It was learned today that King Eduard has signed orders which will cause the war with the French to be continued. This regrettable action was caused by failure of the French to seek any sort of a settlement with the Empire. ##### Reports from the palace indicated that as he signed the orders, the aging king was heard to murmur, "I would not have it so, but as they would have it, so it shall be."

Russia -- Germany: Insist that I am just lending you a (useless) fleet. Any Russian pressures will preclude prior German knowledge of such actions.

DAA (Game of Anonymity #1) -- RETREATING RUSSIAN UNIT SLAUGHTERED BY GERMAN PEASANTS!

SUMMER, 1908 retreats -- ITA: A Rum (R) Bud; RUS: GM (E) Retreating A Mun; NMR. Propaganda --

Paris -- We agree with Italy's sentiments, requests, and demands. In the fall we will order Ion-Eme, Tyn-Ion, and leave the Tyn unoccupied. We are willing to grant Italy full control over the Southern front against the Russians, provided he cooperates with French wishes in the North. In this regard, we have a plan which we ask you to do your part in: I will attack Kiel, and order Bur (S) ITALY Boh-Mun. You order Boh-Mun, Mun-Ber. The result of all this will probably be a stalemate around Munich (unless you by some chance capture Berlin) but I will be in Kiel, and the Russian forces in the West will be broken. If I were to order Bur (S) Mun, I would have no chance at Kiel. You may choose to order War-Sil, although I think it is unnecessary (if dislodged from War, you can go to Moscow). I aided you into Munich, now you can help me into Kiel. You will not lose Munich by this maneuver, unless you get Berlin. Please instruct me what you want me to do with my fleets soon to be in EMe and Ion.

...Louis the Last

Paris -- London: Please attack Den again. I will support you into Den as soon as possible.

Rome -- Okay, Louis. You've heard the Russian proposal. My threat still stands as far as a double-cross goes. I now ask (with that threat still in the background), your withdrawal from Lyon, Tyn, and Marseilles. Nay, I demand it. I also demand a move to Eastern Med from Ionian, and Ionian from Tyn. Also, you will support my unit in Munich in place, and it will support your A Hol-Kie. ##### Now, as for you, Ivan. If you expect us to work out something the precondition is a withdrawal from my province of Rumania, and a cession of Constantinople to me "in good faith" if the alliance gets going. As I have said, my threat to France still stands. ##### Now to the both of you: If France attacks me, my threat will be carried out. However, if Russia does take up my offer, France will still, perhaps, be able to negotiate something -- this if he (France) does not attack me. If Russia does not withdraw, and France attacks, well.... ##### Now, Turkey: Get the h...ll out!!

Deadline for FALL, 1908 moves -- Noon, Mon., Aug. 19.

DJI (3x3 Team Game with Wild-Card Player II) -- GERMANY (WILD-CARD PLAYER) WINS AS TEAMS A AND B CONCEDE!

GM Note -- The Captain of the "A" Team (Lebling) and the Captain of the "B" Team (Huff) have notified the GM of their desire to surrender to the Wild-Card player (McIntyre) and sue for peace. Both Captains have continually been frustrated by defections on the part of Team members, and by Team members' continually sending their moves direct to the GM without going thru the Captains, which is a violation of DJI rules. On this last move, e.g., only Huff, McIntyre, and Naus sent in moves, and Naus sent his directly to the GM. This means, in essence, that the Captains are playing their Teams themselves, in a 3-way game with McIntyre. We are going to rule that the surrender is valid, without polling the other players, since it appears obvious nobody but the Wild-Card player really cares about this game. Besides Huff, Lebling, and McIntyre, the only original player still around is Brooks, who we know for a fact would like to see this game enocd. So, with apologies to the two replacement players, Naus and Gemignani, we hereby declare Michael McIntyre (GER) the winner.

PYC (Regular Diplomacy Game #18) -- Propaganda (cont. from DPBA #31):

London -- The First Sea Lord yesterday issued the following statement: "Inasmuch as the whole world is now aware of the French occupation of Belgium, and particularly in view of the increasing pressures here at home to explain last spring's withdrawal of the British First Fleet from Belgium, His Majesty's government feels compelled to now acquaint interested parties with certain "pre-withdrawal measures" ordered by the Admiralty and carried out by the Fleet, in anticipation of this French move.

"French proclivities toward wine and women were not unknown to the Planning Staff of the Admiralty, and the reputation of the present French regime to indulge in these commodities to excess was equally well known. Accordingly, the First Fleet took steps to deprive the French of these two staples. Every barrel, every keg, every cask, every pouch, every demijohn, every liter, kilo, quart, or pint, every bottle, every flask, every container -- large or small -- of wine of any vintage, domestic or imported has been evacuated from Belgium -- along with every human female above the age of 16 (15, in one singularly precocious instance).

"It is anticipated that when the French discover this (from their point of view) dismal state of affairs in Belgium, the outrage of the French High

Command will be so acute as to seriously distort their military judgment. (More so than usual, i.e.) Naturally, with the French more concerned about the future of their wining and wenching, it just might be possible to deal with the more stable -- and less militant -- elements of the present French Regime -- if indeed any exist.

"Credit for this disbolical scheme must go to Admiral (now retired) Sir Julian J. Smythe-Barrellaz, M.A.D., B.O., B.P.O.E., who has also graciously volunteered the facilities of his country estate, Satyr-on-the-Loose, to store the expatriate wine, and to house the more comely wenches evacuated from Belgium."

Propaganda from "Walsall, Staffordshire", "Rjuvik, Iceland", & "NSG" in DPBA #33.

FIE (Game of the Clans) -- Propaganda (Cont. from DPBA #31):

Paris -- Various rumors reaching here via Dublin, Oslo, and London hint at new and surprising developments in the Anglo-Scottish war. With the English-Stewart alliance driving into the center of the Highlands, any new evolution of strategy may prove to be the deciding factor in the conflict. ##### No responsible diplomatic sources will venture guesses, yet, of the events these rumors foretell. However, it is generally thought that the end is close. Already, after five years of war, four major clans have been eliminated from military and political contention. The hierarchy of the complicated Scottish clan system seems to have been radically changed, if not toppled.

Achnagarry Castle -- Upon being questioned, the MacLeod of MacLeod denied reports that the King, who is staying here because of the conspicuous absence of invitations from other loyal chiefs, is ill. It was rumored that the King had become sick because of the hasty flight from Dunvegan, which immediately preceded the English invasion of that clan seat. However, newsmen were not permitted an audience with His Majesty, who has not been seen now for several days.

PZC (Regular Diplomacy Game #19) -- Propaganda (Continued from DPBA #31):

Kent -- Lord Kitchener, CinC BEF, arrived here to continue preparations for the largest land-sea operation in English history. Kitchener stated that "Allied forces will flush out Herzog Peery and bring him before an International Tribunal for Crimes Against Humanity." Kitchener went on to say that the present troubles in East Europe could be attributed to Peery: "Take a look at all those gross and perfidious betrayals -- the hand of Peery!"
